Course Description

Personal and Social Skills – Entry Level Awards

Content & Overview:

This flexible, practical course builds everyday personal and social skills to help you to live more independently, connect with others, and take an active role in your community.

These qualifications develop essential skills to help adults to grow personally and to build positive relationships. It is designed for adults with a range of abilities, offering flexible, person-centred learning to prepare for employment, further education, or independent living.

Depending on the learners within each class, we can choose from a variety of practical units, including:

- Personal safety, healthy eating, and looking after mental wellbeing
- Independent travel and keeping safe online
- Using money, managing finances, and handling everyday tasks
- Building relationships, self-awareness, and communication skills
- Digital skills for everyday life and contributing to the community

Adults who would like to be able to live more independently and to develop their social skills.
