Course Description

Understanding Child Trauma - Tailored Learning

Content & Overview:

This course will provide you with an understanding of what trauma is, how this impacts the brain and body of a child, and how this impacts the transition into adulthood. This short course will provide an overview of how you can use a trauma informed approach to support children in your care, as well as looking at aspects of behaviour through a trauma informed lens.

Suitable for:

Learners who have an interest in learning about how childhood trauma has an impact into adulthood. Learners who may work with, live with or otherwise support children/people with trauma.

Entry requirements:

No previous qualifications in childhood trauma or counselling.

Delivery Method:

Face to face.

Progression route:

After completion of this course, you may wish to progress onto further courses that support working with and understanding children. Additionally, you may wish to progress onto other tailored learning or qualification-based courses. Please check out our website or speak to a member of staff for more information on your next steps.
